

SHARED OWNERSHIP IN NW1

LAST FEW REMAINING

DIVA

ResPECT Winner
'Loved by You' Awards 2013

Digital
Print

Home About Us FAQs Advertising DIVA horoscopes Competitions Signup Shop Subscribe Login

PREVIEW: LONDON FEMINIST FILM FESTIVAL

Head to Hackney Picturehouse to explore feminist film from around the globe, plus panel discussions and filmmaker Q&As.

Joanna Benecke

Write a comment

Mon, 25 Nov 2013 16:10:07 GMT | Updated 3 years today

The London Feminist Film Festival is back and now it's a whole week long! DIVA film editor Joanna picks the LGBT highlights:

Waiting for You (25mins)

Winner of the Spirit of GAZE award at Ireland's GAZE International LGBT Film Festival, this intimate short chronicles a lesbian couple's journey to motherhood on a small farm in Ireland.

Bending the Lens: 20 Years of the London Lesbian Film Festival(33mins)

Documentary about a group of pioneering lesbians in a conservative Canadian city who manage to create a space for lesbian film.

The Lala Road (10mins)

Four Chinese lalas (women who love women) attempt to find the freedom to be who they are.

Foot for Love: The Thokozani Football Club in Paris (12mins)

The South African women's football team visits Paris in this documentary addressing violence and discrimination against lesbians.

Born in Flames (90mins)

Great opportunity to see Lizzie Borden's 1983 award-winning cult feminist feature film on the big screen! Set in a dystopian future where a socialist government controls issues of racism, classism, sexism and homophobia (with limited success), a group of women decide to take control...

London Feminist Film Festival 24-30 November 2013

@joannabenecke

Check for dates and full programme here.

