HOXTON MOVIES WITH THE LONDON FEMINIST FILM FESTIVAL

On Hoxton Movies this week, Niki and Matt take you through all the latest release and review Fantastic Four and The Diary of a Teenage Girl (both released on Friday 7th August).

Our special guest is Anna Read, the director of The London Feminist Film Festival to discuss inequalities in cinema and what her festival aims to achieve in terms of support female film makers and films with feminist themes.

This week's soundtrack of the week aptly comes from Ridley Scott's amazing film Thelma and Louise, starring Susan Sarandon and Geena Davis.
